Medical and Emergency Information

Does your pet have any medical conditions or had any medical treatment(s) in the last six months?

Duluth Dog Depot has taken extensive measures in cleaning and sanitation to minimize the risk of contagious illnesses, including airborne viruses such as canine influenza or canine infectious respiratory disease ("Kennel Cough"). However, no amount of supervision or sanitation can guarantee a pet will not contract a contagious illness. And because Day Camp is a group play environment with close pet-to-pet interaction, injuries can sometimes occur during play. The pet owner understands and assumes all risks associated with their dog(s) coming into contact with other pets and people during his or her time at Duluth Dog Depot and will not hold the facility liable for illness or injury.

In case of illness or emergency, your pet will be treated at Duluth Animal Hospital. We will make every attempt to contact you for instructions. Please choose one of the following :

Do ALL that Duluth Animal Hospital and Duluth Dog Depot deem necessary to try and maintain pet's health. Owner verifies that he/she is responsible for all costs relating to that care.

Do not take extensive measures costing in excess of $_____. (Minimum requirement is $500 to cover initial serious emergency care).
